

How to Access the Granth Kutir

Research scholars, students and academicians can visit and access the collection of Granth Kutir. You can send an e-mail to the following email ID requesting for permission to visit.

Email id: ps.library@rb.nic.in

You are required to attach a request letter (On the official letter head) duly signed and stamped by the Head of your academic institution. The purpose for which the access is requested should also be stated in the email.

You are required to send the request at least a month in advance and mention the tentative dates and timings when you need to access the Granth Kutir.

Please provide your own mobile number; and also provide landline number of the office of Head of Organisation along with his/her mobile number.
